

MARCH

Angie L ichy
Principal Update
Board Meeting

3-19-26

Principal Updates

- Academics
- Belonging
- Community Engagement
- Upcoming Events

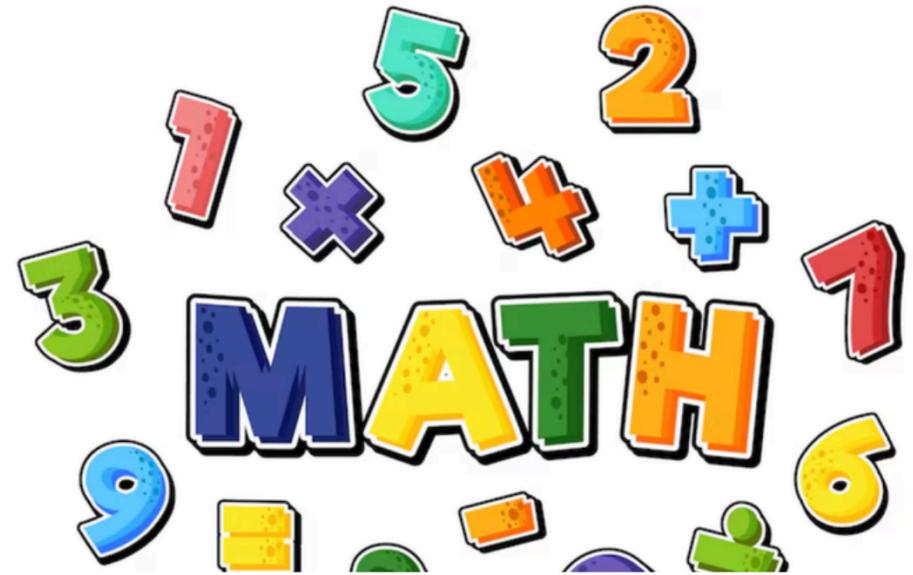

Academics Literacy SOR

- FastBridge
- Capti
- Ufli
- Progress Monitoring
- Wednesday PLC's

Academics Math

- Team Tuesday
- STEMscopes
- Collecting Data
 - Skills Assessment
 - Exit Tickets

Social Emotional Learning

- RCA
 - House Sorting
 - Teamwork
 - Jobs

Community Engagement

- Student of the month
- 4th Grade Cribbage
- Costco Buddies
- MS Buddies on Fridays
- 4th Grade Ramadan/EID
 - Praying

Student of the Month

Upcoming Opportunities

- Grant for Girlscouts K-3
- Kindergarten Graduation
 - 5/28 2:00pm

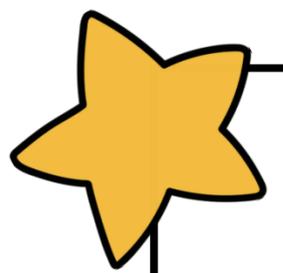

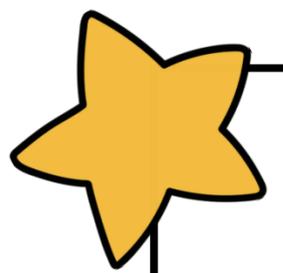

Thank you STAFF

- This time of year can be challenging
- Tired Teachers
- Energetic Students
- Weather is not helping
- We are in the final stretch
- It's A LOT!
- Thankful, Blessed...we can do this!

Any Questions?

Monday, March 1

Agenda

Introduction to myths, legends, and folktales – what they are and how they differ.

Complete a Story Elements Chart for today's story.

Vocabulary

Myth, Legend, Folktale, Moral

Homework

Draw or describe a magical object that could be in a myth.

Tuesday, February 2

Bell Ringer

What is something you consider lucky?

Why do you think it brings good luck?

When did you experience good luck?

Writing Prompt

Imagine you are walking through the woods and find a magical four-leaf clover. What happens next?

Write 5-7 sentences using details.

Homework

Add details to your story and Finish the first draft. Be sure to include a distinct beginning, middle, and end.

Wednesday, February 3

Objective

Identify the characters, setting, and theme in a folktale.

Activity

Complete a character, setting, and theme chart.

To-Do

- Read the story assigned to your group.
- Write one sentence explaining the story's lesson.
- Be ready to share in tomorrow's discussion.

Thursday, February 4

Bell Ringer

Create a lucky saying or proverb about life.

Example: A little kindness is worth much more than a pot of gold.

Discussion

What makes a hero special in a legend?

How do folktales teach us lessons?

Can we create our own legends today?

Assignment

Write an original legend about a lucky or magical event. Be sure to include a hero, magical item, and lesson.

Friday, February 5

Review

This week, we learned about myths, legends, and folktales.

What makes a story a myth, legend, or folktale?

What was your favorite story from this week?

Quiz

Complete a myth, legend, and folktale matching quiz.

Peer Share

Share your original legend with a partner.

Have a Great Weekend!

